

Kemuri Trial Consent Form

You are invited to test a KemuriSense Smart Power Socket in your kitchen. The new socket collects data about room temperature, movement in the kitchen and power used for your kettle or microwave. You continue to look after yourself and use your kitchen as normal. Your family members use their Kemuri Wellbeing Monitor on their computer or smartphone to check that you are warm, eating, drinking and moving around as normal.

I consent to:

1. A double power socket installed in the kitchen.
2. The following people seeing the data collected:
